GOSPEL MEDITATION

“This is how it is with the kingdom of God.” What is a kingdom? Is it the brick and mortar that build up the castle? Is it the expanse of land a king can reasonably defend? Our notions of kingdoms may be romanticized in the modern era, but for the Israelites, a kingdom held deep historical meaning. Thousands of years before the birth of Christ, the Israelites had asked God for a king. After the reigns of David and Solomon, the united kingdom dissolved into factions, and the land was conquered by the Assyrians, Babylonians, and, finally, Romans. For the Israelites, a kingdom was something to build, both structurally and civilly. While this had ended in ruin for their ancestors, many of Jesus’ contemporaries longed for the restoration of an earthly kingdom.

Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel are a radical departure from this perspective. He compares the Kingdom of God to a field, but it appears that the farmer has little to do with its progress. “The seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord, the land yields fruit.” Jesus introduces his followers to a new sort of kingdom, a kingdom where God provides the growth.

There is work to be done, of course. “When the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come.” But for the Kingdom of God to flourish, there are certain things that are outside of our control. We sow seeds of kindness, justice, and integrity ? and then we must be patient. As shoots of faith appear, we nurture the growth with encouragement. As Christians, our task is not to build the Kingdom of God under our power alone, but to trust in the life-giving movement of God.

VISION STATEMENT

As Disciples in Christ, we are called to know, love, and serve God and each other in celebrating and living the message of the Gospel.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a faith community who recognizes and acknowledges individuals' gifts and talents, encouraging spiritual growth.

Advertiser of the Week

Remember to support the businesses that make this bulletin possible.

Bulletin Announcement:

ATTENTION ALL MINISTERS As you prepare to travel this summer, please be reminded that there are lists of all ministers on the long table behind the last row at church. These lists of ministers can assist you in finding a substitute if you are out of town this summer. Please take one home.

Pastoral Council Openings

There are 2 openings on the pastoral council and if you are interested in serving please speak to Fr. Mike, Tina in the office or Dan Gillig.

Financial Peace University Class

If anyone is interested in taking the Dave Ramsey Financial Peace University Class this summer, let Erin know. It is a 9 week commitment and lasts for around 2 hours. This class can help you learn about how to control your money instead of it controlling you.

ARE YOU EXPECTING A BABY?

Are you expecting a baby and would like a rose placed in the vase on the wall next to Our Blessed Virgin Mary? As a parish, we would like to pray that you will have a healthy pregnancy and a safe and blessed delivery. The red roses represent all our expecting families in our parish. You will receive your rose from the vase and keep as a memento from our parish, the day your baby is baptized.

If you are expecting a baby and would like a rose placed in the vase so our congregation can pray for you, please call Marla Stucky, 620-672-6178 or email sstucky@cox.net.

Job opening

Our parish secretary, Tina Heien is retiring at the end of October and so we will be hiring a replacement for that position. Familiarity with the parish, the Catholic faith and some basic computer and bookkeeping skills would be expected. We will take applications and interview candidates through mid August and the job would begin approximately the 1st of September to train with Tina. If you are interested you can get an application from either Fr. Mike or Tina in the parish office.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ez 17: 22-24 / 2 Cor 5: 6-10 / Mk 4: 26-34

Acts of stewardship are not unlike the seeds scattered in today's reading from Mark. The farmer scattered seeds and left them to sprout and grow until the time of harvest. Similarly, when we give of ourselves, we allow God to take those "seeds" and cultivate them into a most abundant harvest! In both cases, the process is hidden and mysterious. It is not for us to understand, but it is for us to willingly participate. Additionally, the parable of the mustard seed reminds us that God can take even the smallest acts and turn them into something marvelous. Therefore, be watchful and aware for those opportunities to cooperate with God's plan. Pray that God will reveal them to you!
