29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SACRIFICE

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." - Mk 10:45

OCTOBER 21, 2018

THE 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL MEDITATION

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Jesus asks a similar question in different Gospel passages, but the request of James and John is not repeated on any other occasion. "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." They ask not for knowledge of God, not for crooked limbs to be straightened nor for the blind to see. They ask for power and authority. Jesus' response should trouble them. "You do not know what you are asking."

"Can you drink the cup that I drink?" Jesus asks. "They said to him, 'We can.'" But what is Christ's cup? Could James and John have possibly known it or understood it here at the height of Jesus' ministry? Jesus' cup is the cup of trial, of difficulty, of public ridicule. His final, thirsting sip occurs as he hangs on the cross. In Christ's kingdom, drinking his cup and participating in his life are not the sharing of power the way we are accustomed. Jesus flips their paradigm. "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

The cup of Jesus is the cup of giving oneself. "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." As Christians, how easy it can be to want the acclaim of good deeds, the gratitude for volunteering, the attention for donating to the church. "It shall not be so among you." If you are overlooked, offer thanks to God for imitating Jesus, rather than bitter complaint at someone else's oversight. Look for opportunities to do good needs unnoticed. This week, consider one way you can drink the cup of Jesus!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

How often do we turn to Jesus in prayer with a very specific request? "Please heal my mom." "Please help me get this job." "Please ease my suffering." We can look at the request of James and John in today's gospel and recognize the self-centered nature of their question. Jesus, rather than rebuking them, simply invites them into his suffering, and tells them that if they want honor they must become servants of all. Being fully alive as missionary disciples means that we, too, are willing to put our self-centered requests to the side. Instead, we can ask God to help us serve others (and HIM!) to the best of our ability. Then, our prayers might sound more like this: "Please give me the mind and heart to care for my mother through her death." "Please give this job to the person who needs it the most." "Please help me use this suffering to grow in love for you and others." Prayer is one of the pillars of stewardship, and is most certainly a way we can serve God and others!

Turkey Dinner Volunteers:

The Turkey Dinner is coming, can you help? Nov. 11 will be our annual Sacred Heart Turkey Dinner! Serving is from 12-2. Takeout & delivery will also be available. This event is put on by many. It is the primary way that supports the budget for the Women of Sacred Heart.

We ask for volunteers to help in setting up, serving, and clean up. Please call your Circle chairperson to help or volunteer if they call you. If your last name begins with A-G call Lois Shumway (388-2617) or Marilyn Alberg (450-7449); H-P call Donna Huff (656-4141) or Linda Conkle (388-1708); Q-Z call Diana Barnard (672-3269) or Sharon Barrett (672-5859). Thank you for your help.

Kansas Maid Pastries For Sale: The students traveling to the March for Life in Washington D.C. in January are selling Kansas Maid Pastries right now. You can call the office, email or call Tonya Kiley to order these items. The orders and money are due Oct. 30th.
