SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Theology has two words to describe the space between God and us - transcendent and immanent. When we say God is transcendent, we speak of the One whose ways are not our ways, the placer of stars and maker of mountains. This is God who transcends our understanding, whose being goes beyond what we can know. When we say God is immanent, we mean His nearness to us. This is the way Jesus speaks of himself in today's Gospel. "Whoever loves me keeps my word... and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

The Hebrews saw God as intimately involved with the fate of their people. But for all His care, God was still distant to most. He spoke through prophets and was represented in blazes of fire and pillars of cloud. Priests offered animal sacrifice to atone for the nation's sins. While we still know that God is transcendent - any morning's resplendent sunrise confirms this - Jesus introduces us to himself in a new way. Not only does Jesus walk among us, but the Holy Spirit dwells within us. "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit... will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you!"

How do you tend to view God? For many of us, the transcendent sense of a distant God might fill our perception. Today's Gospel reminds us of something altogether different, something more intimate. Our God remains with us. He overcomes the confusion of the world and speaks peace to our troubled hearts. Our God is not far from us. The more we remain connected to Him and love as He loved, the more we will experience His nearness. We can have confidence in His presence and rest in His encouragement: "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."

SEASONAL REFLECTION

Mary, Elizabeth & Friendship

What does a 2,000-year-old girl talk and look like? The Gospel tells us in the story of the Visitation, recorded in Luke Chapter 1. This week, we celebrate that special feast when Mary visits Elizabeth. So what can women learn from this friendship?

--Help a sister out. The Visitation involves a first-trimester mother traveling cross-country to serve a friend. Who needs your help this week?

--Affirm each other. Elizabeth's first words were ones of encouragement. We may know our friends' flaws, but we don't need to fixate on them.

--Sing out loud. Mary ends their encounter with the Magnificat, one of the most celebrated song-prayers of Scripture. Celebrate with your friends! Rejoice over each other's blessings.

Bulletin Announcement:

Roses for Expectant Mothers: ARE YOU EXPECTING A BABY or KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS EXPECTING.....and would like a rose placed in the vase on the wall next to Our Blessed Virgin Mary? As a parish, we would like to pray that you will have a healthy pregnancy and a safe and blessed delivery. After your baby is born, you will receive your rose from the vase and keep as a memento from our parish, the day your baby is baptized. If you are expecting a baby and would like a rose placed in the vase so our congregation can pray for you, please call Marla Stucky, 620-672-6178 or email sstucky@cox.net.

- The red roses in our vase represent our current expecting families in our parish.
- The white rose reminds us to pray for life from birth to natural death.

Office Closed: The office will be closed May 24th and 27th. Erin will be out of town the 24th and the 27th is Memorial Day.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

A menudo dirijo la oración grupal con palabras similares: “Danos la sabiduría para conocer Tu voluntad para nuestras vidas y la valentía para seguirla mientras buscamos hacer de nuestra comunidad un reflejo más claro del Reino de Dios.” Las palabras reconocen que necesitamos centrarnos sobre la voluntad de Dios, no la nuestra; y en ese viaje, daremos mayor testimonio del poder transformador de Jesucristo.

Hablamos de cómo somos llamados a vivir una forma de vida de corresponsabilidad y de que se nos han dado muchos dones buenos, pero nunca se trata realmente de nosotros. Nunca somos lo principal. De la misma manera, nunca se trata realmente de nuestra parroquia. Nuestra corresponsabilidad combinada puede llevar a muchos frutos, como un aumento del ofertorio o más vitalidad en la vida parroquial. Sin embargo, siempre se trata del Reino de Dios y del Rey, Jesucristo.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

6th Sunday of Easter

I often lead group prayer with similar words: “Give us the wisdom to know Your will for our lives and the courage to follow it as we seek to make our community a clearer reflection of the Kingdom of God.” The words acknowledge that we need to be about God’s will, not our own, and in that journey, we will bear greater witness to the transforming power of Jesus Christ.

We talk about how we are called to live a stewardship way of life and that we have been given many good gifts, but it is never truly about us. We are never the main thing. In the same manner, it is never really about our parish. Our combined stewardship may lead to many fruits, like an increased offertory or more vibrancy in parish life. However, it is always about the Kingdom of God and the King, Jesus Christ.

Through our stewardship, we allow our parish community to shine like a city on a hill for others to see and then be drawn toward Jesus Christ. It is about leading people to heaven. Our actions of stewardship do not point toward us but instead to the one who calls us to this life. Our constant prayer needs to be that we always seek to discern God’s will and follow it instead of our own. By doing that, we can transform our own lives, our parish communities, and then the world around us.

A través de nuestra corresponsabilidad, permitimos que nuestra comunidad parroquial brille como una ciudad en una colina para que otros la vean y luego se sientan atraídos hacia Jesucristo. Se trata de llevar a la gente al cielo. Nuestras acciones de corresponsabilidad no apuntan hacia nosotros sino a quien nos llama a esta vida. Nuestra oración constante debe ser que siempre procuremos discernir la voluntad de Dios y seguirla en lugar de la nuestra. Al hacer eso, podemos transformar nuestras propias vidas, nuestras comunidades parroquiales y luego el mundo que nos rodea.
