REJOICE

“Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven.” - Lk 10:20

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL MEDITATION

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that “the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

“Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals.” We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn’t mean we can’t share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

“Do not move about from one house to another.” So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn’t just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

“The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off.” Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don’t receive it well. Sometimes people aren’t interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don’t carry it with you. Don’t let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he places in your path!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If you had $100 to give away, to whom would you give it? Perhaps you would choose someone you love. How about someone on the street at a corner stoplight? You could really make someone's day if you gave it to them as a tip after a modestly priced meal. There are so many possibilities. No matter to whom you give the $100, you are certainly being generous. No one can debate that.

Let's say you have narrowed it down to two different people. You know both of these people, and you suspect each person would be equally grateful. Does it make a difference who you give the money to in the end? What if I told you that one of the individuals just got a big raise at work, and the other person is at risk of having their water turned off because they have been late paying their bill. Does it make a difference now?

Discernment should always be an important part of any good steward's way of life. If we give simply for the sake of giving, that may not always be the best use of our gifts. In order to gain the most fruit from the seeds we plant, we must plant wisely. All we have been given has value, and we need be good caretakers of it all. If you ever do find yourself with $100 to spare, be sure to carefully consider all the options and make the wiser choice. In the meantime, pray for wisdom and reflect on how to best use all you have been given for the sake of the Kingdom of God. - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

We would like to thank all of our friends and neighbors for the lovely cards and delicious meals received by us during my convalescence following my broken hip. All were greatly appreciated.

Trevlyn and Lonnie Detmer

Thank you to Ruth Menzer, Jim Pecinovsky, Kathy Axelson, Wanda Voss, Norma Voss, Linda Fletcher, Molly Webb, and Chris Baker for helping with the Newsletter. Erin Crouch
